

Exhibit 1

POWER AND SENSUALITY

THE BEST OF KHMER SCULPTURE

THE FAMOUS ATHLETE from KOH KER

A GORGEOUS BODY FOR EVERYONE

KOH KER

- In 924, Jayavarman IV usurped the throne and moved the Khmer capital to Koh Ker, far from Yasodhapura, the ancient name of Angkor, to a remote area north of present-day Siem Reap. There he proceeded to build a new capital and instructed the best artisans from all over the Empire to create monumental sacred images that reflected the Khmer state religion that was Hindu, but more important, it mirrored the ruler's enormous conceit and colossal self-esteem.

KOH KER - NORTHEAST OF ANGKOR

TRIP TO KOH KER WHERE ARE WE GOING ?

FIRST VIEW OF KOH KER

WELCOMING COMMITTEE

In the middle of a rice field

THE PYRAMID AT KOH KER

PRASAT KRAHAM

Jayavarman IV's Capital at Koh Ker

BIG EGO – BIG LINGA

MONUMENTAL ELEPHANT

WHERE DOES OUR ATHLETE FIT?

NORTON SIMON FIGURE

The Mate To Our Athlete

WRONGLY CALLED A DVARAPALA

PREAH KO DVARAPALA HAS FANGS

Dvarapala in Preah Ko